Tells Why Grand Trunk Stock Was Called Valueless

London Privy Council Explains That Its Jurisdiction Extended Only to Seeking a Legal Error

LONDON, Nov. 10. (By The Associated Press).—Lord Birkenhead, former Lord Chancellor, today in the Privy Council gave the reasons for the dismissal by the judicial committee of the Privy Council in July of the appeal of the shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway from the finding of the Board of Arbitration, which had declared the common and preferred stock of the railway valueless.

Late Fall Buying Autos Heaviest Ever Experienced

Production Schedules Near Those of Early Months of the Year; Closed Cars Especially in Demand

DETROIT, Nov. 10.—Under the impetus of the heaviest late fall buying the industry has known, factories in the Detroit district are continuing to turn out a volume of cars that is only greatly in excess of volume at this time in other years, but is also on a par with production in the earlier months of the year. Practically all of the production, moreover, is for most standard retail orders, and many factories are weeks behind their sales departments.

Business News New York State Industries Show 3% Employment Gain

Iron and Steel Mills Put On 10 P. C. More Workers Last Month; Apparel and Textiles Also Improved

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—Every group of manufacturing industries in the state, with the exception of those engaged in the preparation of food products, added to the number of its employees in October, according to the monthly report issued yesterday by the state Department of Labor. An average increase of 3 per cent was shown in all industries in the steel and iron mills the increase was 10 per cent. In the railway equipment factories and railway repair shops the increase was 10 per cent. In the addition of 30 per cent more workers. The only setback occurred in the sugar refineries, where the usual seasonal reduction was intensified by a complete shut down of some refineries because of the price situation.

Urges Utilities Develop Customer Ownership

Insult Sees Continued Improvement in the Prior Lien Securities

Samuel Insull, president of the Commonwealth Edison Company, of Chicago, speaking before the Bond Club at its monthly luncheon at the Bankers Club yesterday, urged very strongly the advantage of developing customer ownership of junior securities as a means of insuring the safety of the system. He expressed confidence that the strength of prior lien local utility securities would improve from year to year, and that the cause of this improvement would be the system of customer ownership from the standpoint of the additional amount of money it would put into the properties of the utility companies.

Wheat Weaker on Death of Buying Before Holidays

Initial Gains Wiped Out by Moderate Selling; Close Is Unchanged to 3-8 Cent Net Lower

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Death of important fresh buying, a circumstance assumed to general unwillingness to assume new risks in the face of a double holiday, had a somewhat bearish effect on the wheat market today. Prices closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 3/8 lower. Corn last 1/4 to 1/8 and oats 1/4 to 1/8 to 3/8.
